

BIG BAD BILLY

Words and music by Jamison J. Statema

© 1998 Found Free Music (ASCAP)

Administered by Fun Attic Music

Big Bad Billy had a Belly ache
He had a Bit of Bad Bread for dinner
And ever since then no food he'll take
So now Billy, he's much thinner

He's got a Brother named Ben with a Baseball Bat
He plays Ball all day long
And every time I see that Boy
He's always singin' his favorite song, And it goes. . .

Chorus

Oh me, Oh my
My song has just begun
Oh me, Oh my
And now my song is done

Nifty Nancy was a Nanny
She Sat a baby named Sue
And they would cut out paper shapes
And they would stick 'em together with glue

When they were done they were so happy
With what they did that day
That they joined hands and did a little dance
And everyone heard them say. . .

Chorus

There was a Funky Fish named Franky
He was Fightin' a Furious Flu
But there's no Pharmacy in the ocean
So what could Franky do?

Meanwhile up above the water
There was a Crazy Cow named Curt
And he would moo this song so loud
It would make your eardrums hurt

Chorus